Marilyn Wilkinson Service Scholarship

Prompt:

"Kindness is often defined as a single act, while service is defined as a sustained commitment. Reflect on a specific experience where you moved beyond 'being nice' to actively serving a need in your community. In your response, please address the following:

1. The Catalyst: What was the specific moment or realization that compelled you to take action?
2. The Challenge: Describe an obstacle you faced during this experience (emotional, logistical, or social) and how you navigated it.
3. The Evolution: How did this experience change your understanding of the people you were helping and your own role in the community?
4. The Future: How will you carry this 'spirit of service' into your college career and your future profession?"

Essay Requirements:

- 500-750 Words
- 12 pt sized, Times (or New Times Roman), Double Spaced, 1 inch margins
- Title (other than "Scholarship Essay")
